Case No. 18-00414-CV-W-ODS

AMENDED ORDER (1) FINDING DEFENDANT BRADFORD INTERIOR GROUP, LLC
IN DEFAULT, AND (2) ORDERING DEFENDANT TO SUBMIT TO AN INSPECTION
AND ACCOUNTING OF ITS RECORDS

On August 22, 2018, the Court entered an order finding Defendant in default, and directing Plaintiffs' to submit evidence on damages. Doc. #11. Later that day, Plaintiffs' counsel contacted Chambers via telephone to state the need for an inspection of Defendant's records prior to submitting evidence of damages and seeking a default judgment. As stated in its August 22, 2018 Order, the Court finds Defendant in default. Doc. #11, at 1. The Court amends its August 22, 2018 Order as follows:

(1) The Court strikes Plaintiffs' September 24, 2018 deadline to submit evidence on damages as contemplated by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 55(b)(1).

(2) Plaintiffs are entitled to both equitable and monetary relief. The equitable relief includes an order directing Defendant to submit to an inspection and accounting of its books and records, and the monetary relief cannot be assessed until this is done. Accordingly, Defendant is ordered, within sixty days of this Order, to submit its books, records, and other financial documents to Plaintiffs so they may be examined and an accounting performed. The accounting shall be designed to determine the contributions, liquidated damages, and interest that may be due and owing Plaintiffs from January 1, 2017, to the present under the relevant collective bargaining agreements between Plaintiffs and Defendant as set forth in the complaint (Doc. #1).

Defendant is advised that failure to comply with this Order may result in a finding that Defendant (or its principals) is in contempt of court.

(3) Upon completion of the inspection and account ordered above, Plaintiffs shall file appropriate documents and materials described in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 55(b)(1) to satisfy the requirements for default judgment.

The Clerk of the Court is directed to send two copies, one via certified mail and one via regular mail, of this order to:
